

The Liturgy of Baptism

God's Call

The bishop or priest says

E te whanau a te Karaiti / Dear friends in Christ, God is love, God gives us life. We love because God first loves us. In baptism God declares that love; in Christ God calls us to respond.

The Presentation for Baptism

Each candidate for baptism is presented individually by a sponsor or, in the case of a child, by a parent or godparent, who says

I present N (my child) to be baptised and made a member of the Body of Christ, the Church.

The bishop or priest says

From the beginning the Church has received believers by baptism. Believers' children have also been baptised so that with help and encouragement they should grow up in Christ and by the grace of God serve Christ all the days of their life.

On the day when the apostles first preached the Gospel of Christ's resurrection, Peter urged his hearers

'Repent and be baptised, every one of you, in the name of Jesus the Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God may call.'

(Names) How do you respond to this promise?

Each candidate for baptism replies: The parents and godparents of each child reply:

I hear God's call and come for baptism. We hear God's call and ask for baptism.

The bishop or priest says to the candidates, and (for children), to the parents and godparents

Do you renounce all evil influences and powers that rebel against God?

The candidates and parents and godparents reply

I renounce all evil.

The bishop or priest says

Do you trust in Christ's victory which brings forgiveness, freedom and life?

The candidates reply:

The parents and godparents reply:

In faith I turn to Christ my way,
my truth, my life.

In faith I turn to Christ, my way, my truth,
my life, as I care for this child.

*People: May God keep you in the way you have chosen.

The Affirmation

All stand to respond in these affirmations.

Kia whakapaingia te Atua, mo tana oha o te aroha.

The Celebration of Faith

All standing, the bishop or priest says to the congregation

Let us rejoice with those committing themselves to Christ, and celebrate the faith of baptism.

Bishop or priest Do you believe in God the Father

All I believe in God the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Priest Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God

All I believe in Jesus Christ,
God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Priest Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

All I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Baptism

The bishop or priest stands by the water for baptism, and says

Praise God who made heaven and earth

People: whose promise endures for ever.

The bishop or priest prays

We thank you God for your love in all creation, especially for your gift of water to sustain, refresh and cleanse all life.

We thank you for your covenant with your people Israel, through the Red Sea waters you led them to freedom in the promised land. In the waters of the Jordan your Son was baptised by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit.

Through the deep waters of death Jesus fulfilled his baptism. He died to set us free and was raised to be exalted Lord of all. It is Christ who baptises with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

Amen. Come Holy Spirit.

We thank you that through the waters of baptism you cleanse us, renew us by your Spirit and raise us to new life.

In the new covenant we are made members of your Church and share in your eternal kingdom.

Through your Holy Spirit fulfill once more your promises in this water of rebirth, set apart in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom, thanksgiving and honour, power and might, be to our God for ever and ever.

Amen!

The bishop or priest baptises each candidate for baptism, either by immersion in the water, or by pouring water on the candidate, saying [Name], I baptise you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

[Ingoa], he iri-iri tenei naku i a koe, i runga i te ingoa of te Matua, te Tama, me te Wairua Tapu.

The following may be introduced by the bishop or priest using the following or other appropriate words

Let us welcome [Name]

Amen.

God receives you by baptism
into the Church.

Child of God,
blessed in the Spirit,
welcome
to the family of Christ.

Amine.

Kua tohia koe e te Atua,
ki roto i tana kahui
he tamaiti mana,
i roto i te Wairua.
Nau mai, haere mai,
ki te whenua a te Ariki.

The bishop or priest makes the sign of the cross on each of the baptised, saying

We sign you with the cross, the sign of Christ.

Ka tohia koe ki te ripeka a te Karaiti.

A lighted candle may be given by a representative of the congregation, who says,

Walk in the faith of Christ crucified and risen. Shine with the light of Christ.

Takahia te ara, i roto i te whakapono o te Karaiti i ripekatia nei, i ara ake i te mate. Tiaho i roto i te maramatanga o te Karaiti.

The bishop or priest may say to the child

N, you are now a pilgrim with us. As a member of Christ's body, the Church, you will be challenged to affirm your faith in God and receive the laying on of hands in confirmation. May you grow in the Holy Spirit, fulfil your ministry and follow Christ your whole life long.

The bishop or priest may bless the family

God bless you with wisdom and love, may this child find in you, your homes and families, Christ's love and understanding. Amen.

The bishop or priest, with the people, may pray

God of love we thank you for our calling to be disciples of Christ. Help us to nurture this child in the faith we share. May s/he grow to love, worship and serve you, and bring life to the world. Amen.

The parent(s) and godparents return to their places with their children.

The service may continue at The Peace in a Eucharistic Liturgy.
