is seeking*

a Minister

*Closing date for expressions of interest:
Wednesday, 31 October 2012*

Are you a dedicated biblical preacher, a person who will lead and work with the existing team, a good communicator, and a person able to get on with a variety of others who will help our church continue to serve our community?

Do you share a similar passion for Jesus, a heart for people and a desire to preach the Word?

We invite you to consider contacting us and expressing your interest.

We are serious about being a church family, wanting to reach families and individuals in our community and to minister effectively to those families already part of the church.

We need leadership and encouragement to fulfill our potential in this area.

Lay Ministry Vacancies

The Anglican Diocese of Christchurch is seeking a
Diocesan Children's Ministry Adviser

Closing Date: Friday, 2 November 2012

THIS POSITION IS BEING RE-ADVERTISED.

It is a fixed term contract to cover Parental Leave and the term of appointment will expire on completion of the term of parental leave or twelve months, whichever comes sooner.

The Anglican Diocese of Christchurch seeks a suitably qualified and experienced person to continue the development of Ministry with and for children and their families. The position is part-time (10 hours per week) and remuneration is based on the current Diocesan pay scale for Youth Workers.

The primary objectives of the position include training those involved in ministry to children in parishes and communities; to advocate for the well-being of children in all communities, to offer resources to enhance their quality of life from the perspective of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to assist parishes to develop child-friendly and safe outreach for the communities they serve.

The Diocesan Youth Adviser is responsible to the Bishop and is a valuable member of the Diocesan Mission Team, working particularly with those involved in ministry to children and young people in the Diocese and further afield.

St John's Vision/He Kitenga Roa

The College of St John the Evangelist has a vision of loving service, unity and reconciliation in Christ such that:

- We are entrusted with the theological educational task of preparing students to be sent out from the college, confidently equipped to be as sacrificial, transformative, just, healing and reconciling agents, as servants of God revealed in Christ
- We are able to give full expression to the diversity, gifts and treasures of the three Tikanga by our unity in Christ
- We live our lives in loving service to God's people and God's world. Our life and our formation at St John's College and beyond always strives towards this purpose
- We seek to fulfil this vision as a Christian community that takes seriously our reconciliation in Christ
- We acknowledge that we undertake this journey in deep thanksgiving for the legacy of Selwyn and all our faithful forebears

St John's Mission / Te Mahi Hikoi

The College of St John the Evangelist, in response to the saving act of Christ, and in recognition of the five marks of mission, exists to provide excellence in bicultural, three Tikanga, theological education for the mission and ministry of the Church in Aotearoa New Zealand, Polynesia and the world.

Te Kotahitanga (the Board of Governors of the College) wishes to appoint a person as Principal/Manukura of the College of St John the Evangelist. The position requires excellence in executive management skills, and a proven ability to provide leadership in a theological academic world, with a minimum of a preferred PhD or Doctorate in Ministry in areas relevant to the theology and management of a theological college.

The person will be expected to provide leadership, relationship management and strategic support and direction in the provision of quality academic programmes within the College of St John the Evangelist. This role is charged with driving the mission of St John's by providing inspirational managerial and operational leadership, clear academic direction, and skilful implementation of the strategic requirements of Te Kotahitanga. The position has a mandate for change with full delegated authority from Te Kotahitanga to develop and implement policy, make rules and regulations, and facilitate the development and implementation of the academic curriculum. The role requires committed leadership, within the context of bicultural, three Tikanga relationships, and is responsible for management of the day to day operations of the College, pastoral and spiritual care of students through the Deans and staff and close liaison and consultation with Te Kotahitanga and other important stakeholders.

The level of appointment will depend on qualifications and experience. You must be eligible to work in New Zealand to be considered for this position.
